The river at this point has climbed the bank in the past two days by leaps and bounds and now covers the outside ice pier. Notwithstanding the continued rain and rapid rise rivermen do not apprehend any danger from a flood. The water here may reach 45 or 50 feet. Colder weather is promised by the weather man, which will check its upward tendency. There will be sufficient, however, to overflow the bottoms and lowlands in this vicinity and thereby retard the cultivation and planting of crops. There need be no fear, however, of an '84 flood.

ANOTHER C. AND O. WRECK!

AN ACCOMMODATION TRAIN

Was Dumped Into Washout Just West of Quincy

Engineer and Fireman Killed, and Several Others Badly Hurt

The worst wreck that has occurred on the C. and O. since the memorable Bull Creek disaster just East of this city, and one that was the same in every particular save that the train that went into Bull Creek was a freight and the one that went into Briery Creek last night was a passenger, there being three lives lost at Bull Creek, and it is probable there will be three lost in last night's accident, happened at 7:10 last night a few yards West of Quincy.

The heavy downpour of rain the past forty-eight hours caused the creeks and smaller streams to become raging torrents, and at the point where the wreck occurred there is a long fill with a culvert in the center to allow the free passage of water.

Evidently the culvert became choked, and the water backed up, softening the fill until the pressure became so strong that it gave way, leaving nothing save the rails and ties.

Train No. 20, the Huntington Accommodation, due at Quincy at 7:20, was the first train to go over the road after the washout, and it struck the place, the engine and two coaches going into the hole, the rear coach, containing the passengers, luckily staying on the brink.

Engineer John Spotts, who for several years ran the Maysville Accommodation train, and who was one of the most careful men on the road, together with his fireman, Steve Earnest, both of Covington, went down, the Engineer being found sitting on his seat with one hand on the throttle and the other clutching the air-brake lever, he having been drowned.

Fireman Earnest's body has not yet been found. He leaves a wife and five children residing in Home street, Covington.

Express Messenger J. G. Hand of Covington was injured so badly that at last midnight he was reported dying.

Conductor T. J. Hogan of Covington had two ribs broken and received several severe bruises. No other lives have been reported lost up to the present.

The road will be blocked for through traffic for forty-eight hours, but local trains will transfer around the wreck.

The C. and O. has been singularly fortunate in the operation of its trains so far as the loss of life is concerned, there having been no passengers lost on this Division in a wreck, while the list of employees killed is a comparatively small one.

M. B. Bradley has been summoned as a petitioner in the United States Court at Covington, which convenes Monday.

Sovereign Dryden, a prominent Robertson county citizen, died the past week at his home at Kenton town, aged 60.

Thomas S. Gaines, County Attorney of Scott county, died in Cincinnati, where he had gone for treatment.

Charles Vokes, former pugilist, died at his home in Covington, of injuries sustained in a fall from a streetcar.

Miss Davis's Silver Soap at Miss Amelia Wood's room, Court street.

Mrs. Julia McGraw of Frenchburg was acquitted of causing the death of one woman and the illness of others by placing arsenic in their coffee.

THERE'S a proposition on foot to cast Herr Most's ashes "to the four winds,"—which is a little bit rough on the winds.

THE Methodists of Bluefield, W. Va., became so enthusiastic over building a new Church that BEN. CAPELY was killed, his wife's head was nearly torn away, another woman was wounded, and three men have employed Doctors to mine for lead.

THE LEDGER hasn't a word to say against our local street builders personally; they do the best they know how; but they don't possess the right sort of Know How, and that's all there is to it. The Honorable Mayor, you may be assured, wouldn't employ a Printer to make cigars for him.

THE man who declared at a meeting held in New York on Thursday night that "STRENNBERG got what was coming to him" was cheered by his audience. Still, says The Louisville Times, it must be remembered that it's a long cry between a rented hall in New York and the power of the police authorities of Idaho.

THE real temperance advocates won a big victory in Ohio. The increase of the saloon license from $350 to $1,000 a year will, it is conservatively estimated, put 6,000 saloons out of business. Now, honor bright, Mr. Prohibitionist, isn't it quite an advance to reduce the ginmills by that number? Or, do you argue, "the more, the better?"

COLONEL HENRY WATTERSON, himself a European tourist of several experiences, draws this picture of Mrs. and Mr. BELLAMY STORER, late Ambassadors in Vienna—

The President sent Mr. BELLAMY STORER his walking papers none too soon. Decidedly this gentleman had outlived his usefulness, if he ever had any, which may be doubted. His mission in life seems to have been rather to rattle around as the husband of a wife having a wad and a will of her own and seeking to fashion him after certain pottery models, to which at one time she gave her attention, than to represent his country in a foreign land. His attempt at the latter has certainly been more fantastic than salutary.

"The STORERS," says a recent private letter from the heart of the Austro-Hungarian capital, "may be described as conspicuous by their absence. They are very little in evidence here. Madame runs away to Italy or Egypt when she wears of Court life. Monsieur hies after her. But even during the few and brief intervals when they honor the region of the Danube with their presence, they are invisible to the naked American eye, girded round by stone walls and iron gratings, guarded by three rows of lackeys, and wholly impervious to the common herd. Even the wife of a famous Senator, with whom the STORERS had been on terms of intimacy in Washington, passed a week in Vienna without being able to obtain access to the mystic shrine. The wandering Yankee finds it easier to get to the Emperor than to the American Ambassador."

A QUESTION OF EVIDENCE.

Boston Post.

Senator Proctor of Vermont related the following with reference to an Irishman who was being examined as to his knowledge of a certain shooting affair:

"Did you," asked the presiding Magistrate of the witness, "did you see the shot fired?"

"O! did not, sir," responded the Celt, "but O! heard it foired."

"That evidence is not satisfactory," replied the Magistrate sternly; "you may step down."

The witness left the box. No sooner had he turned his back on the Judge than he gave vent to a somewhat derisive laugh. Enraged at this contempt of Court, the Magistrate called the Irishman back to the witness box.

"How dare you laugh in that manner in Court?" demanded the Judge, angrily.

"Did you see me laugh, Your Honor?" asked the Irishman.

"No, but I distinctly heard you laugh," came from the irate Judge.

"Such evidence is not satisfactory," rejoined the Celt, quietly, a twinkle coming into his eye.

"Whereupon," says Senator Proctor, "every one in Court laughed, including the Judge."

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be restored forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by HILL'S CATARRH CURE. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Richard Harding Davis says he has changed his opinion regarding the condition prevailing on the Isle of Pines. He formerly thought the agitation regarding the ownership of the island was due to the activity of land speculators, but he found that a number of the American residents are earnest in their belief that the island properly belongs to the United States.

HOME-COMING WEEK

Editor John J. Altmeyer's Suggestion Takes on Formal Shape

The Committee appointed by the Board of Trade to arrange the preliminaries looking to a "Home-Coming Week" for ex-Maysville and Mason counties met at The Bulletin office yesterday afternoon and decided to recommend to the Board, at its annual meeting next Thursday night, that the affair be held immediately following the parental event in Louisville. In other words, beginning June 18th—with a public celebration on Wednesday the 20th, at "Beautifol Beechwood Park," providing the necessary arrangements can be made with the street railway company; and if thought advisable by the Entertainment Committee a home-talent minstrel at the Opera-house the previous night.

The program and much other detail that must necessarily follow, such as collecting a fund, etc., will be the work of Committees to be appointed by the Board, following the adoption of the foregoing recommendations.

No more ideal spot than Beechwood could be found hereabouts for a June outing and meeting place for beloved friends and relatives who will come to accept our hospitality and renew the acquaintances of youth. The park is magnificently equipped and can accommodate a large crowd.

DECIDE YOURSELF.

The Opportunity Is Here, Backed By Maysville Testimony.

Don't take our word for it. Don't depend on a stranger's statement. Read the statements of Maysville citizens And decide for yourself.

Here is one case of it:

Mrs. Mary Thomas, wife of J. A. Thomas of 204 Limestone street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I am only too pleased to confirm the statement I made in the spring of 1900 recommending Doan's Kidney Pills, after they had relieved me of backache and other symptoms of kidney trouble. I got them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore. During the years that have elapsed since I made that statement I have had occasion to give Doan's Kidney Pills a further trial and I have found that it requires only a few doses to ward off attacks of kidney trouble or to check them before they become serious. I can also point to the case of my boy, twelve years old, who at the time I first used Doan's Kidney Pills was troubled a great deal with weakness of the kidneys and could not control the secretions properly. I gave him Doan's Kidney Pills and he improved rapidly under the treatment. The relief he found has proved lasting and from his experience and mine I am certainly warranted in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
